STRONGER CASE

Made Out Against Powers Than Before.

New Witnesses Reveal All the Details of the Conspiracy.

Georgetown, Ky., October 19.—

Sensational testimony was introduced in the trial of Caleb Powers yesterday. One after another were presented, witnesses who laid bare to the jury in a more concise and connected form than in any of the previous trials the details of the conspiracy alleged. W. H. Culton told of early plotting and of plans to start a general shooting in the Senate chamber, in which Goebel and other Democrats were to be killed, but this was called off by Charles Finley on the day decided upon. Finley said: "Culton doesn't start the trouble to day. Gen. Duke says other arrangements have been made to settle the matter." Former Chief Justice Hazelrigg testified that Leander Guffy, son of Justice Guffy, warned him at 10 o'clock on the day Goebel was shot that "the boys had decided the night before to kill him" (Hazelrigg). Sherman Stivers, who was a Republican assistant postmaster at Paris, testified that Postmaster John L. Bosley had told him of his return from Frankfort four days before the assassination that "we have arranged to raid the Kentucky Senate to-morrow," and that Goebel, among others, would be killed and that five trusted men had been secured to do the work. The next day Bosley told him the plan was abandoned because the presence of deputy sheriffs made it impossible to get the men in the chamber, and that "we have arranged another plan." Sherman Stivers was corroborated by his brother Rufus, also an employee of the Paris post-office and a friend of Bosley. The testimony adduced yesterday implicated all the men under indictment and others. The Commonwealth will rest its case to day. The defense moved to abandon the night sessions on account of Power's health, but the affidavit was neither sworn to nor signed by the attorneys, and Judge Cantrell over-ruled it.

John Boyd is pulling so hard that he has already broken his single-tree. He finds it an uphill task to get the old line Republicans to vote against a battle-scarred union soldier like Milt Littlefield, and John is beginning to wear that same dazed look that he wore just that same day in 1890 when Moses West moved him out to his farm. I feel sorry for John, because I never saw a fellow with such an appetite for the article.

RINGSTER'S DIARY.

The Gang Appoints a Committee to Find the Leak.

The Republican of Court Secrets Causes Continued Contention.

I will make affidavit that the records published in the KENTUCKIAN last week did not leave my possession after they were written. How they ever leaked out is a mystery to me. The fusion detective, who ever he is, must be a mind reader or a hypnotist, one or both.

That Dennis Perry boomerang has played hounds with poor Will Fowler. They say in some precincts he won't rise to the dignity of an "also ran."

John Boyd is pulling so hard that he has already broken his single-tree. He finds it an uphill task to get the old line Republicans to vote against a battle-scarred union soldier like Milt Littlefield, and John is beginning to wear that same dazed look that he wore just that same day in 1890 when Moses West moved him out to his farm. I feel sorry for John, because I never saw a fellow with such an appetite for the article.

Anyhow we are going to select our candidate for coroner.

Jim Rogers has lowered his 2000 estimate to 1950. If Bassett gets back this week, we'll have to doctor Jim for the rattle.

Some of the boys want John Prowse to stuff the registration books next week with floaters and fellows who were prevented by sickness from registering because their mothers-in-law had growing toenails on the regular registration day, or because they were absent from town while the grand jury was in session. But John won't agree to do it. He is more careful than he used to be.

Lem Davis is going to offer a reward of $4.99 for the discovery of the old darkey's bear-trap. It has a red soldier on one end and a union soldier on the other. It is made up of Baptist preachers, Christian elders, Methodists, Presbyterians, Universalists and so on. There are Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights, Wise Men, Elks and Princes of the Orient. If the voter doesn't see what he wants he has only to ask for it and they will find it among the deputies. No wonder we can't down 'em.

The fusionists have fixed up a combination that is worse than the old darkey's bear-trap. It has a red soldier on one end and a union soldier on the other. It is made up of Baptist preachers, Christian elders, Methodists, Presbyterians, Universalists and so on. There are Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights, Wise Men, Elks and Princes of the Orient. If the voter doesn't see what he wants he has only to ask for it and they will find it among the deputies. No wonder we can't down 'em.

Lem Davis is carrying too much dead weight to do much running. We thought he was going to keep Pond River in line, but Pond River is giving us more trouble than any other part of the county. The folks out that way know Lem too well to be excited over his approaching defeat.

The confusionists are now claiming every precinct south of town except Longview and Newstead, but we expect to turn loose $500 in every manly disabled.

That "Ring Diary" column is issued by the Hopkinsville Kentuckian this week was a corker. It is kept up until November 5 the fusion ticket majority will be largely increased. "Ringster" is a writer from away back.—Elkton Progress.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

In severe catarrh comes headache, impairs the eyesight, affects the hearing, poisons the breath, damages the stomach and affects the kidneys.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional—alternative and tonic.

"I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicine, but it did not help me much in a trial fit, but gradually grew worse until I could hardly bear, taste or smell. I then consulted Dr. J. C. McElroy, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since." Enoch Posse, Lebanon, Ky.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures catarrh—it soothes and strengthens the mucous membranes and builds up the whole system.

The Federal Chemical Company, a combination of Kentucky and Tennessee fertilizer plants, has been organized by Louisville financiers, with a capital stock of $3,000,000. Many witnesses for the defense are giving strong testimony before the Schley court of inquiry in favor of Rear Admiral Schley. Every charge against him has been refuted again and again. It is more than likely that after Schley is vindicated his friends will insist upon making it hot for Sampson.

Nearly all the witnesses for the defense have arrived in Georgetown to testify in the case of Caleb Powers. This is the last week of the term of court, and the verdict must be reached this week or a mistrial will result.

The President pardoned John Harris, a Kentucky purveyor, who out served a two year's term in the Indiana penitentiary, in order that his civil rights be restored to him.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came into my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. R. L. Waverley, a well-known druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she take a bottle of it, the remedy and always give it a full dose. I did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale in a large measure to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by its use. It is for sale by all druggists.

HANGING FIRE.

Department May Force the Postoffices Out.

Congressman Allen Notified That a Complication Has Arisen in the Matter.

The postoffice department has ruled that Rural Routes will not be established unless postoffices of the fourth class in the territory affected are discontinued. This is causing a serious delay in the Church Hill and Newstead routes, as the people objected to the discontinuance of the Church Hill and Beverly offices.

Congressman Allen sends us the following letter which explains the matter:

"Washington, D. C., Oct. 14, 1901.
Hon. H. D. Allen, M. C.,
Morganfield, Ky.

"I have your letter of October 9th, stating that you do not concur in the discontinuance of the postoffice at Church Hill, recommended abolition of the proposed Rural Free Delivery Service from Hopkinsville, Kentucky, and have noted carefully the statements you make with regard to the matter.

"In reply I have the honor to inform you that no action will be taken by the Department looking toward the establishment of Rural Free Delivery from Hopkinsville, or the discontinuance of the Post Offices at Church Hill, The Square and Beverly, until you have been consulted with regard to the matter.

"Very respectfully,
J. M. MASTEN,
Acting First Assistant Postmaster General."

Mr. Allen also writes the KEN TUCKIAH as follows:

"I herewith enclose you copy of letter just received by me from the Acting First Assistant Postmaster General, which I should like for you to give place in your paper. I shall hold myself in readiness to do whatever is best for the greatest number of people at the places named in the matter of the discontinuance of the postoffices, and should like very much to have them agree among themselves as to what they desire.

Yours very truly,
H. D. ALLEN.

The local postmaster has also been notified that the new service depends upon the discontinuance of the postoffices. As this ruling is a new one, Mr. Allen wishes the people interested to settle among themselves which course they desire him to pursue.

DR. BRIGGS COMING.

Will Lecture at Holland's Opera House Thursday Night.

Rev. Dr. George W. Briggs, of Paducah, has been secured by Manager Holland for a lecture at the opera house next Thursday night, Oct. 24. His subject will be "How to be Happy Through Marriage."

Dr. Briggs is a noted evangelist, who has held meetings in this city and is exceedingly popular with our people. It is safe to say that the opera house will be well filled on the occasion of his lecture.

Dr. Briggs the Cincinnati Enquirer says:

"Dr. George Waverley Briggs made a profound success, and ranks with Wending, Conwell, Nourse, and such men, who are fixtures on the platform."

The Middletown (O.) Signal says:

"His audience laughs as heartily at one moment as they at another moment weep in sympathy at one of those strokes which make the whole world akin. His powers of portrayal are rare indeed, and his audience see with him the scenes his fancy pictures."

JAS. E. CROFT

Passes Away at His Home at Crofton.

One of the Best Citizens of the County, Whose Place Will Be Hard to Fill.

Mr. Jas. E. Croft, the most prominent citizen in the northern half of Christian county, died at an early hour Friday morning, at his home in Crofton, a town founded by him and named in his honor.

Mr. Croft has been in bad health for several years. Last year he had a severe attack of dropsy, from which he obtained relief. On the 23rd of September he suffered a stroke of paralysis and since that time had been in a hopeless condition. He also had rheumatism of the heart and other complications which made his recovery impossible.

Mr. Jas. E. Croft was born in Christian county, Jan. 19, 1839. He was a son of Wm. G. and Mary McKinney Croft. His father came from South Carolina, coming with his grandfather from England and carried on a tanners trade when he first came to Kentucky and also engaged in farming.

The subject of this sketch attended the county schools until he was 20 years old and then taught school for two years. Later he engaged in merchandising at what subsequently became the town of Crofton.

When the railroad came, Mr. Croft laid out the town and erected many buildings. He owned and operated for a time a flour mill, saw mill, tobacco factory and mercantile establishment. His brother was associated with him in the tobacco business.

At his own expense he built a handsome school building for his town and later became the largest stockholder in the Crofton Academy, completed in 1883.

Mr. Croft was married Oct. 2, 1862, to Miss Elmira E. Bourland. They reared four children, two of whom, with the grief-stricken widow, survive him.

The funeral was preached Saturday by Rev. W. B. Wright, pastor of the Christian church, of which he was a member. The body was laid to rest in the Croft burying ground, one mile from Crofton. The deceased was a lifelong and consistent member of the Christian church and was a leader in church matters, as he was in business affairs and steps of progress.

He was liberal, charitable and benevolent and spent money freely to build up his town and benefit his people.

He was a Democrat in politics, but was wonderfully popular with men of all walks of life. He was never at any time an office-seeker.

The present fusion candidate for Sheriff, Mr. Geo. B. Crot, who is a Republican, is a half-brother of Mr. Croft, and his brother, A. B. Crot, is also a Republican.

Mr. Crot leaves an estate estimated at from $40,000 to $50,000. He was the richest man in his section of the county. His property is in farm lands, town lots, bank stock and investments.

POPULISTS PULL OFF.

Trigg County Democrats Making a Winning Race.

Cadiz, Ky., Oct. 18.—A great many people were in town Monday, county court day. DeWitt Smith went for Max Hanbury pretty lively. The Populists pulled off all of their candidates and turned the boys loose to vote for whom they please. Nearly all of the Populists will vote the Democratic ticket. Every Democratic nominee will be elected in this county by a good majority.

WHEN YOULOSE FLESH, IT BRINGS THE PLUMPNESS OF HEALTH.

IT IS THE THIN EDGE OF THE WEDGE; THE THICK END IS FOOD. BUT WHAT IS THE USE OF FOOD, WHEN YOU HATE IT, AND CAN'T DIG IT?

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three hours. The kidneys are your blood purifiers; they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If you over-work, or sit still or out of order, they fail to do their work.

Pains, aches, rheumatism, stiffness, etc., are caused by the excess of acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick and unexpected heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, impure blood through the veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only kidney troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all common diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mind and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Klim's Home of Swanwood, Binghamton, N. Y.,

BEAUTIFUL BADGES

Presented to the Past Grand Masters of Masonic Lodge.

A feature of the annual meeting of the Kentucky Grand Lodge of Masons held in Louisville last week was the presentation of handsome jewels to all living Past Grand Masters of the lodge. There are twenty-two of these past grand masters, among the number being Hon. Jas. A. McKenzie, of Oak Grove, this county. Mr. McKenzie, was not present at the meeting this year, but his badge has been forwarded to him. He served as Grand Master in 1891.

READY FOR BUSINESS.

Firm Now Better Prepared to Handle the Weed.

J. H. Eggleton & Sons' new tobacco factory has been completed by Forbes & Bro., the contractors, and turned over to the owners. The factory is a commodious structure and is fitted with the most improved machinery. The Eggletons are all tobacco men of experience, the senior member of the firm, Mr. J. H. Eggleton, having been in the business for nearly half century, and it is safe to predict that they will enjoy a largely increased business, now that they are better prepared to handle the weed. Mr. J. L. Long drew up the plans for the new building.

WINFREE A WINNER.

Has Never Lost a Battle in 19 Years.

Has Twice Overcome an Adverse Majority and Been Elected Judge.

Judge Wm. P. Winfree, in the opinion of many well informed politicians, will receive a larger majority than any other candidate on the fusion ticket.

The Judge is an old campaigner who knows every road in the county and is traveling over most of them, and finding supporters on all of them. He has not been a strict party man of late years and consequently has strong friends in all parties.

His career has been an interesting and an honorable one.

He is the oldest of a family of 14 children and was born in Sumner county, Tenn., in 1843. When five years old he came with his father, S. T. Winfree, to this county and grew to boyhood on a farm near Hopkinsville. When a boy of 18 he entered the Confederate army enlisting in Co. "H," 18th Ky. Cavalry. He made a brave soldier and participated in the bloody battles of Perryville, Chickamauga and Winchester. At the latter place he was wounded while fighting gallantly for the Lost Cause.

After the war he studied law and located in this city. He has lived here ever since, excepting one year that he lived in Kansas and edited a newspaper at Pleasanton. In 1882 he made his first race for office as a democratic nominee and defeated Judge A. V. Long, Republican. He made a most popular official and was re-elected in 1886, defeating Mr. A. H. Anderson, then as now the Republican leader of the county. His record in the county judge's office for eight years was one of efficiency, strict integrity and courteous treatment of all the people alike. He made a broad-minded upright judge.

Later he served as Master Commissioner under both Judge Grace and Judge Linn, holding this responsible position for several years. He also served a term as City Treasurer and held numerous other places of trust and honor.

Like many good Democrats who have since returned to their party, Judge Winfree was a gold Democrat in 1896 and he is the personal representative on the fusion ticket of probably 300 Democrats who failed to support the national ticket.

These voters are all helping to rescue the county from Ring Rule this year and will not only vote for Judge Winfree but support the whole ticket. With these voters added to the Bryan vote of 1900 there will be 3,600 Democrats in a total of 7,800 votes, leaving the normal Republican majority about 600, what it used to be. When we take from the Republican vote at least 800 votes and perhaps 1,500 that they will lose this year, it shows how utterly hopeless their contest is this year. Judge Winfree will get many additional votes among the colored people, by reason of the fact that his opponent has Burchardized himself by advertising the fact that his father voted against a colored nominee in 1890, the present nominee being at that time under 21 years of age.

Judge Winfree is himself absolutely confident of success and not only for himself but the whole ticket.

The fusion ticket is fortunate indeed in having such an experienced campaigner and trained leader to lead the reform forces in the great movement of the people to place the affairs of the county in the hands of good and clean men. Let every Democrat of every shade of opinion do his full duty and the reform Republicans will join hands with them and do the rest.

POLITICS AND LOVE.

Closely Mixed Up in the Rockefeller-Aldrich Engagement.

Remarkable History of the Man Whose Daughter is to Wed the Young Millionaire—Began Life as a Grocer.

The son of the richest man in the United States is to marry the daughter of the most influential man in American congress. This is the important phase, from a Washington standpoint, of the announcement of the contract to marry by John D. Rockefeller's son, Miss Abby, the daughter of Senator Aldrich's wife.

In many respects, says the Cincinnati Commercial, Senator Aldrich is the most influential man in public service. His position assists in establishing the general proposition that the strongest men in congress are not lawyers. They are business men. As a grocer he began life. He became a shipping agent and was a highly successful. Taking a dip into politics, he landed in the common council of the Rhode Island town of Providence. His promotion was gradual up to the state legislature, to the lower house of congress and to the United States Senate.

He has become the executive leader of the senate. He is a member of that silent governing group of United States senators of which McMillan, Platt (Conn.) Allison and Frye are members. He does things for which other men are silent. No speeches come from him, and public meetings he rarely makes; but his silent force never relents. With joyful enthusiasm he told Senator Hanna that he would support the shipping subsidy bill, but he proceeded to kill it.

JACK RUSSELL WOUNDED.

Shot While in Fight With Bolo men in Philippines.

Jack M. Russell, one of those reportedly seriously wounded in a battle with bolo men on the Island of Samar last Wednesday, is a son of Dr. E. P. Russell, of this city. He served through the Spanish-American War as a member of Company A, of Bowling Green, a portion of the Third regiment. When mustered out of the volunteer service he applied for admission to the regular army, but was turned down on account of a slight heart trouble.

Former Senator William Lindsay took up his case and succeeded in having him admitted to the army. He was assigned to the Ninth Infantry and has been in the Philippines for about two years.

Mr. Russell is a native of Todd county, but had been practicing law at Bowling Green before he joined the army. He was considered a fine lawyer and an unusually bright orator.
